XG-1050, RT-3 Transmitters

1. In order to expedite future procurement of the subject equipment as required, and further to maintain the tools, dies, and jigs in good condition at a convenient place, it is requested that the Contractor retain the residual property under the Contract XG-1050.

2. The Contractor is agreed to this arrangement and will make the property available at any time we may request it. In line with experience in procurement of spare parts for the RT-3, the Engineering Division considers this arrangement to be in the best interests of the Government.
